THE LORD REIGNETH

The Lord reigneth, the Lord reigneth Blessed be the name of our God! The Lord reigneth, the Lord reigneth Blessed be the name of our God! Let the earth be glad, Let the heavens rejoice Let them say unto the nations. The Lord reigneth, the Lord reigneth Blessed be the name of our God!

CROWN HIM WITH MANY CROWNS

Matthew Bridges, George J. Elvey

Author unknown

Crown Him with many crowns
 The Lamb upon His throne
 Hark how the heavnly anthem drowns
 All music but His own
 Awake my soul and sing, of Him Who died for thee
 And hail Him as thy matchless King thru all eternity

2. Crown Him the Lord of lifeWho triumphed o'er the graveWho rose victorious in the strife for those He came to saveHis glories now we sing, Who died and rose on highWho died, eternal life to bring and lives that death may die

3. Crown Him the Lord of Lords
Who over all doth reign
Who once on earth the incarnate Word
For ransomed sinners slain
Now lives in realms of light
Where saints and angels sing
Their songs before Him day night,
Their God, Redeemer King

- What are the circumstances that caused the Solemnity of Christ the King to be announced as an official Day in the Catholic Church?
- Can God bless us even in the midst of our hardships?
- Is calling Christ King a metaphor, or a tangible reality?
- What are the three ways that Jesus is King in our lives?
- Why should you make Christ King in your own life?
- Is this a one-time commitment, or a daily commtiment?

Deep gratitude to uber-talented songwriter Ken Yasinski for use of his song "Let Your Kingdom Reign", off of Roadside Cry's "Take My Life" CD. Contact Ken directly to see how you can obtain the original recording.

Shout out to new media consultant Greg Willits. He's coming out with a new book and has a new site, The New Evangelizers.

Quas Primas ("in the first") is the encyclical of Pope Pius XI, which declared The Feast of Christ the King. Much of my comments were spurred on by the reading of this document. You can (and should) read it on the Vatican website, and also on PapalEncyclicals.net.
